BRIANNA GRESSETT,

Plaintiff,

No. 1:22-cv-00133-KK

CHARLES ROY, et al.,

Defendants.

ORDER REGARDING COMMUNICATION WITH THE COURT

On April 18, 2022, the undersigned's chambers received three emails from pro se Plaintiff. See Exhibits 1-3.

The Court notifies Plaintiff of the following regarding communications with the Court:

Attorneys and pro se parties are prohibited from all ex parte communication with the judge or judge's staff. Ex parte communication occurs when one of the parties to a lawsuit exchanges information with the assigned judge (1) without the opposing party being present, or (2) without the knowledge and consent of the opposing party.

Any communication between the assigned judge and a pro se litigant should be in writing, and a copy of the communication should be sent to the opposing party or, if represented, to that party's attorney. The letter to the judge should indicate that a copy has been sent to the opposing party. Telephone or personal contact with the judge's staff should be limited to specific scheduling inquiries.

Guide for Pro Se Litigants at 11-12.

Parties may not file documents by sending them to the undersigned or her chambers; documents to be filed must be either mailed or delivered in person to the Clerk of Court. Any documents sent to the undersigned or her chambers for filing in this case will not be filed.

Unless otherwise directed, all communication to the court should be addressed to the Clerk of Court, United States District Court, District of New Mexico, using the address for the division [Albuquerque, Las Cruces or Santa Fe] where the subject case has been assigned.

Guide for Pro Se Litigants at 5 (providing the Albuquerque, Las Cruces and Santa Fe addresses).

The Court notifies Plaintiff that if she ignores Court Orders, continues to improperly send documents to the undersigned or her chambers, or improperly communicates with the Court ex parte, the Court may impose filing restrictions and impose other sanctions to deter such improper behavior.

Generally, pro se litigants are held to the same standards of professional responsibility as trained attorneys. It is a pro se litigant's responsibility to become familiar with and to comply with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the District of New Mexico (the "Local Rules").
